

J·DAVIES

J. Davies
2006 Cabernet Sauvignon
Diamond Mountain District
Napa Valley

90 points

"Deep, well-defined fruit and a fine sense of winemaking polish win this mannerly, well-crafted bottling high recommendation, and, if not among the more dramatic Cabernets to be had, it is as precise and as well-focused as any. Ample, yet never in the least way heavy, and fit with temperate tannins, it is the picture of class from beginning to end and will age handsomely owing to style rather than brawn."

- Charles Olken

April 2010