

Schramsberg
FOUNDED 1862

2006 Blanc de Noirs
North Coast
90 points

"A full dose of creamy yeast backed up by light, directly cherryish notes and by hints of burnt paper and baked brioche brands this wine as the real thing. It is explosively bubbled and is bristling with acidity and becomes a trifle hard and austere, yet it counters that minor bother with a minerally streak and a long finish."

— Charles Olken

November 2009

Schramsberg
FOUNDED 1862

2006 Blanc de Noirs
North Coast
90 points

"A full dose of creamy yeast backed up by light, directly cherryish notes and by hints of burnt paper and baked brioche brands this wine as the real thing. It is explosively bubbled and is bristling with acidity and becomes a trifle hard and austere, yet it counters that minor bother with a minerally streak and a long finish."

— Charles Olken

November 2009

Schramsberg
FOUNDED 1862

2006 Blanc de Noirs
North Coast
90 points

"A full dose of creamy yeast backed up by light, directly cherryish notes and by hints of burnt paper and baked brioche brands this wine as the real thing. It is explosively bubbled and is bristling with acidity and becomes a trifle hard and austere, yet it counters that minor bother with a minerally streak and a long finish."

— Charles Olken

November 2009