

Wine Spectator

June 30, 2011

“TOP WINES” FROM NEW ZEALAND

KUMEU RIVER

2008 HUNTING HILL CHARDONNAY

92 POINTS

“Toasty chestnut flavors emphasize the rich, round notes of lemon, nectarine and ripe pear, with a crushed stone minerality that shines through, especially on the finish. Extremely smooth and graceful.”

—MaryAnn Worobiec’s Recommended Wines from New Zealand

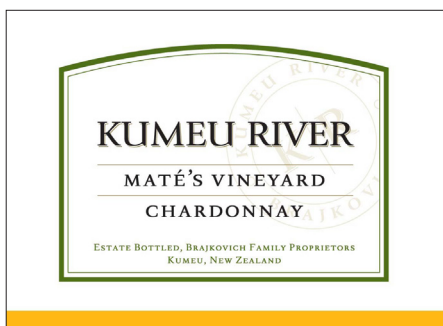

2008 CODDINGTON CHARDONNAY

92 POINTS

“This delivers wonderful depth and purity to flavors of lemon curd, yellow apple, Meyer lemon and apricot. Aromatic, with lanolin, honeycomb and floral notes, a terrific silky texture and wonderful acidity.”

—MaryAnn Worobiec’s Recommended Wines from New Zealand

2008 MATÉ’S VINEYARD CHARDONNAY*

90 POINTS

“A zingy wine, with plenty of green apple, Bartlett pear and lemon-lime flavors that are bright and refreshing, with a crisp acidity surging through. Shows accents of fresh thyme and mineral on the finish. Drink now through 2016.”

—MaryAnn Worobiec

*Not included in the Top Wines from New Zealand listing.

