

Domaine Leflaive 2006 Bâtard-Montrachet

97 points

“The balance of this wine is what makes it so impressive. Spice and yellow fruit intermingle effortlessly. There is a core of tight, coiled steel, like a spring, which gives minerality along with the richness. At the end, acidity lifts the wine, finishing with freshness as well as intensity.”—Roger Voss

Domaine Leflaive 2006 Chevalier-Montrachet

“Taut and mineral, this is currently a wine that is waiting to reveal its power and majesty. The fruit is on a tight rein of acidity, which only slowly opens up to show mango, pineapple, crisp citrus, layers of toast and a mouth-enveloping richness. Age for at least five years, preferably 10.”—Roger Voss

Domaine Leflaive 2006 Les Pucelles Premier Cru (Puligny-Montrachet)

94 points, CELLAR SELECTION

“A rich, mouthfilling, sophisticated wine. The secret is in the balance, with the concentrated fruit flavors—dried apricot, mango and lemon—in just the right proportion. It tastes delicious now, but will certainly age over five years or more.”—Roger Voss

Domaine Leflaive 2006 Clavoillon Premier Cru (Puligny-Montrachet)

A superb wine. It opens slowly in the mouth, revealing layers of toast followed by intense white and green fruits. Spice and nutmeg accent the kiwi, pepper and pineapple notes, all concentrated around a core of minerality. Age for at least four years.”—Roger Voss

Domaines Leflaive 2006 Mâcon-Verzé

90 points

“Open and soft, with rich, attractive flavors of caramel, milk custard and peaches. There is ripeness in abundance, followed by great intensity of flavor. Subtle wood underlies the wine.”—Roger Voss

Domaine Leflaive 2006 Chardonnay (Bourgogne)

89 points

“Beautifully rich for such a lowly appellation in the Burgundy hierarchy. It is soft, open, dense, with ripeness and balancing acidity as well as flavors of pineapple and citrus pointing up the richness, just touched by wood.”—Roger Voss
